ZARIFA GHAFARI

AWARDS : - International Woman of Courage, awarded by the U.S. Department of State, in 2020

- Named one of the 100 Inspiring and Influential Women of the World in 2019 by the BBC.

These awards are given to women around the world who have demonstrated leadership, courage, ingenuity, and willingness to sacrifice for others, especially to promote women's rights.

Zarifa Ghafari is an Afghan lawyer, activist and politician. Until recently she was mayor of Maidan Shahr, the capital of a Taliban-occupied province.

She was the youngest mayor to be appointed at the age of 26 and one of the few female mayors in Afghanistan. She is known for her efforts to empower women's rights in Afghanistan..
